WHEN THE CIRCUS COMES.

There are pleasing recollections called up by the tented show. Memories of youthful pleasures in the days of long ago. Vividly again are pictured scenes that then enjoyed renewal. And the same old thrills we're feeling when the circus comes to town.

We remember how the neclins then by scores were supplicants. For the job of lugging water for the thirsty elephants. How they used to gather early and express their wonderment. For a palace of enchantment was the old-time circus tent.

We remember how we struggled for a seat down near the ring. To be close to clown and rider and keep track of everything. How we watched with wide-eyed wonder when each daring leap was made. How we feasted on the peanuts and tinted lemonade.

We remember young ambitions in those old-time circus days. When we yearned to wear the spangles and disport in public gaze. How we envied all the riders their connection with the show. And how sadly we lamented when we saw the circus go.

It is not the old-time circus that now gayly comes to town. Not the old-time beasts and riders and the solitary clown. For by train loads now performers and accessories are brought. And the tented show is spreading o'er a forty-acre lot.

Great and many are the changes since those happy early days. When the little circus charmed us, and in wonder we would gaze. But there comes the same old feeling, and we simply have to go. Though there's risk of getting cross-eyed at the modern tented show.

The Republicans of Fleming county, in convention at Flemingsburg Monday, nominated C. Y. Hillis for Representative and John S. Lawson for Circuit Clerk.

The presence of every Elk is desired at tonight's meeting. Plans for new Lodge and Clubrooms will be submitted. Adopt them—and then watch us grow!

A special meeting of the State Board of Valuation and Assessment will be held at Frankfort next Monday to fix the franchise valuation of several of the railways in the state.

Rev. V. T. Willis, who was Pastor of Sedden Chapel last year, left yesterday for Spokane, Washington. His health has not been good and at the recent session of the Kentucky Conference he was given supernumerary relations.

The men employed by the Cincinnati branch of the American Type Founders Company struck Monday. The strikers include type-casters, dressers, mold workers, machinists, brass rule workers, nicking machine operators and inspectors.

Judge James H. Hazelrigg, late Chief Justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, met with a painful accident at Frankfort Monday. In washing his teeth he mistook a bottle of carbolic acid for a bottle of tooth wash. His mouth and throat are in such condition that he cannot talk above a whisper.

Having accepted the agency for a line of fine engraved stationery, in order to introduce this line we will furnish 100 handsome engraved visiting cards with plate for $1, this for a limited time; 100 cards from your plate for 50c. Orders received for engraved wedding invitations. MURPHY, the Jeweler.

An incipient fire was discovered the other day in the comparatively new home of Mr. William Lingensfelder, a short distance from the city on the Flemingsburg pike. The damage amounted to about $100, which was caused by the ruin of carpets and furniture. Mr. and Mrs. Lingensfelder were in this city at the time and the fire was discovered by his father.

In convening Circuit Court at Carlisle Monday, Judge Osborne, in charging the Grand Jury, instructed it to investigate the office of the County Judge and the records of his office. For the past year or more there has been much ill-feeling existing between Circuit Judge Osborne and County Judge McNew, and it culminated last week in Judge McNew, who is Editor of The Carlisle Democrat, bitterly denouncing Judge Osborne.

NEW TIMOTHY SEED. We compete with anybody. M. C. RUSSELL Co. CITIZENS' TICKET.

One Suggested For Councilmen at the Coming Election.

There is a sentiment permeating the air calling for a Greater Maysville.

In order to attain such something must be done, and the first thing in that direction is the placing of men of means and business acumen in the City Council, as that body is the Legislature of the municipality.

In connection with the above there has been mentioned a citizens' ticket composed of the following—
First Ward—Charles D. Ponree and John H. Dersch.

Second Ward—Dr. J. A. Reed and G. S. Wall.
Third Ward—T. A. Keith and J. I. Winter.
Fourth Ward—J. B. Russell and J. T. Short.
Fifth Ward—S. M. Hall and E. A. Robinson.
Sixth Ward—John Duley and Fred Thomas.

SERIOUS RUNAWAY.

Two Mason Countyans Severely Injured Yesterday Afternoon.

Mr. Robert Terhune of Tuckahoe met with a very serious accident yesterday.

He was returning from Dover in a buggy, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. John E. Bouldin and little granddaughter.

The horse driven to the buggy has always been considered an exceedingly gentle one and no fear was ever entertained of his running away.

On this occasion, however, when about a half a mile from Tuckahoe, he ran off without provocation, upsetting the buggy and turning it over twice, making a complete wreck of it.

Mr. Terhune, who is 86 years old, sustained a compound fracture of the leg and was otherwise injured.

Mrs. John E. Bouldin was seriously hurt but strange to say the little child escaped without a scratch.

Owing to the age of Mr. Terhune and seriousness of his injury, his recovery is problematical.

Dr. J. A. Reed went out from this city this morning to amputate the injured leg.

SOMEWHAT EXAGGERATED.

Doesn't Do to Rely on The Cincinnati Post For Truth.

Some days ago THE LEDGER accepted the statements of The Cincinnati Post in regard to the marriage in that city of Mr. John P. Auxier and Miss Myrtle A. Cray of Millersburg.

It now develops that the only basis for The Post's sensational narrative was the simple fact that the young couple were married.

There was no "elopement"; there was no "turn down" when the marriage license was applied for; there was no "waiting for parents' consent," for Miss Cray's father knew all the arrangements and they met his approval. In fact, the families of both young people acquiesced in the marriage, and the "surprise" belonged only to those who had no right to know all the details.

Miss Cray is the daughter of Mr. J. B. Cray of Millersburg, President of the Flat Rock Oil and Gas Company, and a most charming young lady, and Mr. Auxier was a former resident of Millersburg, now of North Vernon, Ind.

Mrs. L. V. Davis's Fall line of Millinery is now complete.

William Hart, Proprietor of the Commercial Hotel at Cynthiana, is to assume charge of the Hotel Reed at Lexington tomorrow.

The regular monthly meeting of the Mason County Medical Society will be held Wednesday September 30th, at 2 o'clock p. m. in G. A. R. Hall. This meeting will be one of business, in which 'tis hoped every member will take sufficient interest to induce his presence.

Thomas, and Miss Martha Stevenson of this city, has been promoted to the position of Commercial Agent of the Clover Leaf Railroad in the newly established office in Buffalo, N. "THE OLDEST INHABITANT."

Mr. Thomas Tudor of Mt. Olivet Has That Distinction Now.

Among the pleasant callers on THE LEDGER yesterday was Mr. Thomas Tudor, one of Mt. Olivet's venerable and most esteemed residents.

Mr. Tudor, who is 84 years of age, is the oldest man now living who was in Maysville when he first came here in the long ago.

He was born at Cape of Good Hope, South Africa, on August 5th, 1819, and came to America when but two years of age.

He landed at Baltimore, but at the age of four, eighty years ago, reached Maysville, where he lived for many years.

He remembers distinctly the appearance of this section at that time, and through the long years has watched the progress of the city and kept in touch with the residents who were then here.

Mr. Tudor is a tinner by trade, and notwithstanding his advanced years, spent in useful labor, he is seemingly in the best of health and in the full enjoyment of all his faculties.

THE BEE HIVE!

A Recapitulation!

Two years and eight months ago we arrived in Maysville, without a friend or an acquaintance---except one and this one was soon to leave. Today if customers are friends we have the longest list in Maysville. What have we done in less than three years, WE THREE BOYS? We have built up the largest business in Maysville; we have raised the standard of goods; we have lowered the price on same; we have awakened the entire community to the necessity of up-to-date merchandising; we have doubled the advertising of the newspapers; we employ more help than all the other drygoods stores in Maysville, together---in fact, we have forced more improvements in less than three years than any fifteen years of Maysville history.

AND WE HAVE ONLY STARTED. The best goods for the least money has been our success. We are after your dollars, but in return we will give you a BIGGER AND BETTER DOLLAR'S worth than any other store in Kentucky. WATCH US GROW.

The half dozen voters who are not candidates for Congress in the Eleventh District are arranging to go fishing on election day.

The Alabama Senate passed the House bill prohibiting boycotting, black lists, bans or picketing in that state, and provides punishment therefor. The bill is considered very strict, and is opposed by organized labor of the state.

The Lexington Herald, Democratic, speaking of the recent Democratic "primary" in Covington, has this to say—

"What effect this heated and bitter primary will have in November we know not; but it is not a savory feast to offer at this time to the people of Kentucky as illustration of the good government promised by Democratic success."

At Covington a lump of coal fell off a C. and O. car and cut a man on the head; and now the Damage Suit Lawyers are debating whether to bring suit against the lump of coal, or the owner of the mine from which it came, or whether they will just sue the C. and O. and let it go at that.

The State Fair at Owensboro, to which the Legislature so kindly contributed $15,000 of the taxpayers' money, was a howling failure financially. Next time the Legislature wants to vote away a slice of the Treasury for a Fair, let them give it to the Maysville Elks. They will give the right sort of a show and put the balance on the profit side of the ledger.

The Walking Delegates appear to have greased the "ways" sufficiently to launch modern Labor Unions safely in the slough of Despond. As a result of the action taken in the St. Louis World's Fair Building controversy, requesting the stone to be cut "on the work," merchants of Bedford, Ind., regard the action and decision in the case issued by the International Stone Cutters' Unions a boycott on the stone districts of Indiana, and a movement is being taken to have every merchant in the city refuse to buy any merchandise from St. Louis houses. This action will be agitated until it is reached by every town and city in Indiana, and will be acted upon the same in other cities that refuse Indiana stone that is cut in Indiana yards.

His Life Saved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"B. L. Ryer, a well known cooper of this town, says he believes Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy saved his life last summer. He had been sick for a month with what the doctors call bilious dysentery, and could get nothing to do him any good until he tried this remedy. It gave him immediate relief," says B. L. Ryer, merchant, Hancock, Md. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

Within a year more than 2,000 skilled workmen have left the French silk factories of Roubaix and Tencol for the United States.

While a miscreant was building up stones on a railway line near Berlin in order to cause an accident an express dashed past, striking and fatally injuring him.

The Genuine vs. Counterfeits.
The genuine is always better than a counterfeited, but the truth of this statement is never more forcibly realized or more thoroughly appreciated than when you compare the genuine DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve with the many counterfeits and worthless substitutes that are on the market. W. S. Ledbetter of Shreveport, La., says: "After using numerous other remedies without benefit, I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve and cured my eye, blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, and finally to equal DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

It is said that at the request of the President Secretary of the Treasury Shaw will come to Kentucky and make three speeches—possibly in Louisville, Owensboro and Lexington—after October 15th. Judging from the complete lack of organization, and the disposition of the present mismanagers to do absolutely nothing, Maysville is not to be considered in the coming election.

THE LEDGER is under obligations to ex-Secretary of State CALIB POWERS for a copy of his masterly speech before the Democratic Jury and Court that convicted and sentenced him to death at Georgetown. Every lover of Justice should read this wonderful presentation of the case by the man who surely knows more about it than the perjurers whose testimony was accepted for his conviction.

THE average American business letter writer is a careless fellow after all. Last year the Dead Letter Office at Washington received something over 10,000,000 pieces of misdirected mail matter—the largest in the history of the office—exceeding the preceding year by some $50,000 pieces. Of the aggregate number $895,205 pieces were opened. The money found in opened letters amounted to $48,634, but this sum included money—generally coin—found loose in the mails or in Postoffices and consigned to the Dead Letter Office. Commercial paper found, such as drafts, checks, money orders, etc., represented a face value of $1,493,563.

TALKING about harmony in the Republican party, just hearken to this warble from the Democratic camp. County Judge McNew of Nicholas, who also edits The Carlisle Democrat, speaks these kind words of Circuit Judge OSBORNE of his District—

"On account of this personal knowledge and of these libelous rulings, unmitigated falsehoods, and acts of insolence and cowardly oppression against us by this 'high-minded, conscientious Judge,' we have in the public press and otherwise, on numerous occasions, exposed his infamous modes and methods of tyrannical oppression and downright villainy, and truthfully denounce him as a tyrant, a liar and a coward, and in the name of honor, justice and fairness have nothing to retract."

And yet—and yet there are people hypocritical enough to say that the Judiciary of Kentucky is free of politics!

Mr. Beckham says in his speech—same one every time—"that the Democratic party is as much opposed to killing a Republican in Breathitt county as it is to killing a Democrat in Franklin county." CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
To Be Voted On at the November Election.

CHAPTER 50.

An act to provide for an amendment to Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky.

"The General Assembly may, by general laws only, authorize CITIES OR TOWNS OF ANY CLASS to provide for taxation for municipal purposes, on personal property, tangible and intangible, based on income, licenses or franchises, in lieu of an ad valorem tax thereon;

"Provided, cities of the first class shall not be authorized to omit the imposition of an ad valorem tax on such property of any steam railroad, street railway, ferry, bridge, gas, water, heating, telephone, telegraph, electric light or electric power company."

THE TRIBUTE OF BALKIS.

Remarkable Spectacular Entree With the Barnum & Bailey Show.

The management of the Barnum & Bailey Greatest Show on Earth have delved back in the dusty tomes of the libraries of Europe and discovered a beautiful and poetic subject which they have seized upon for exploitation, and made of it a stupendous spectacle full of life, action and beauty. The subject is, as the title indicates, the tribute of one mighty sovereign to another still mightier, and graphically depicts with historic accuracy in all details the pomp and circumstances surrounding the act of homage just as it took place three thousand years ago. It is as truthful a reflex of an event long anterior to the Christian era, with every concomitant exactly reproduced according to the best authorities.

Balkis, Queen of the Sabaeans, reigning about the year 900 B. C., journeys to make homage and offer tribute to the powerful potentate holding her dominions in vassalage, and this ancient historical event has been treated in the grandest possible style, and to use a trite expression "regardless of expense." In this wonderfully exalting theme artists, architects and designers have exhausted all the libraries in their search for authentic data from which to manufacture the huge triumphal floats and cars, scene photographs and illustrations of ancient armor, weapons, banners, devices, idols, chariots, costumes and paraphernalia, with the result that all are now exhibited in facsimile of the original. In many instances the old museums of Europe were successfully visited for specimens of the various interesting objects used in the days when the world was more populous than it is today, and at a period of its history when pomp, ostentation and lavish prodigality were conspicuous.

Four hundred historical characters are seen in this wonderful production, all elegantly and expensively clothed in the costumes of the time, among which are charming idol, fan, vestal, torpelchorean and chorus girls, radiant in beauty and finery of almost inconceivable picturesqueness and fabulous cost. Men in burnished armor, charioteers in ancient dress, Priests in long robes, archers, warriors, slaves, soothsayers, serfs, knights, servants, animal tenders, teamsters, nobles, ambassadors, courtiers, dancing girls, and many others are all faithfully represented just as they appeared in Bible times. As an instructive and grand divertissement, as a prelude to the regular performance, it is a most ambitious attempt in the line of glorious spectacles yet attempted and is really worthy the great institution presenting it. Besides this superb spectacle, there is a triple circus, double menagerie, three herds of elephants, museum of living wonders, hippodrome races, serial tournament, equestrian entertainment, exhibition of models of United States warships, baby elephant and mother, two giraffes, nearly 100 horses performing at the same time in three rings, 300 human artists of all kinds, and a thousand new features collected at home and abroad in all the countries of the world, and they will all be here undivided on Wednesday, October 7th, for one performance, at 2 p. m.

Now my sleep is refreshing and digestion perfect." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

A Remarkable Record.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many millions of bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

ATE THE POULTICE.

Old Way of Curing a Dog of Poison From Snake Bite.

The Ledger man heard another one on Colonel Fred Bierbower, and like everything else that is good THE LEDGER gives it to its readers.

In years gone by the Colonel was a hunter of note for miles around. Together with his faithful dog and trusty gun he would spend days in the forest hunting game that then abounded.

On one of his invasions his dog was poisoned by the bite of a snake, and was in consequence in danger of dying.

The Colonel sought the advice of an eminent physician who prescribed a poultice, the constituent parts of which were flaxseed and an ounce of laudanum, which applied at once relieved the pain.

The result was apparently very happy.

But in less than thirty minutes the physician was very much surprised to see the Colonel returning with an air of great excitement.

"Doctor," he exclaimed, "I wish I may be eternally damned if that bitch hasn't eaten up the poultice."

"All right," said the Doctor, "you've got a dead sure thing of it now."

The next day the huntress was ready to take the field again.

MILIONAIRES' POOR STOMACH.

The worst stomach of the over-fed millionaire is often paraded in the public prints as a horrible example of the evils attendant on the possession of great wealth. But millionaires are not the only ones who are afflicted with bad stomachs. The proportion is far greater among the toilers. Dyspepsia and indigestion are rampant among these people, and they suffer far worse tortures than the millionaire unless they avail themselves of standard medicine like Green's August Flower, which has been a favorite household remedy for all stomach troubles for over thirty-five years. August Flower restores the torpid liver, thus creating appetite and insuring perfect digestion. It tones and vitalizes the entire system and makes life worth living, no matter what your station. PLEDGES ARE NOTHING

Broken Promises of Beckham Strown by Roadside.

WRITHES, WRIGGLES AND SQUIEMS

When Confronted With His Public Utterances Which Were Freely Made During the Campaign in 1900—His Speeches of Then and Now Compared Show Hopeless Inconsistencies.

(Louisville Herald.)

There are pathological signs that Beckham, grown irresponsible with the itch for power, that he is not competent to wield, does not himself understand what he says, or, if he does, will not hesitate to deny his own utterances for expediency. The words that men ordinarily use with each other and which are accepted among men generally as meaning something definite and binding to mental and moral integrity seem to have strange shapes and indefiniteness to him.

Here, for instance, are two public speeches made by Mr. Beckham, three years apart, upon the same subject, and that subject the one which, of all subjects, was engrossing his whole attention then, as it is now—Pardons: (From the Courier-Journal's Report of Governor Beckham's speech at Mayfield, Sept. 17, 1900.)

Mr. Yerkes asks me what I will do in reference to the men charged with Goebel's murder. I want to say here and now that I am not the nominee of a party which has endorsed any of the men convicted of that crime, as Mr. Yerkes is; but I shall not set at liberty any man, with whatever crime he may be charged, if the evidence against him is strong enough to justify his conviction.

(From the Courier-Journal's report of Governor Beckham's speech at Harrodsburg, Sept. 7, 1903.)

While in the main Governor Beckham's speech today was on the lines of that delivered at the opening of the campaign, he diverged to some extent and took occasion to comment on Colonel Belknap's newspaper "reply" to the governor's question as to whether Mr. Belknap, if elected, would pardon Caleb Powers, Howard or Youtsey. In that interview Colonel Belknap said that Governor Beckham in his former race for governor had promised not to pardon any man convicted by a jury of twelve men.

The governor said this statement compared as closely to the truth as one of Colonel Belknap's bills of lading compared with one of his invoices. He said he had made no such absurd promise; he stated that he would never pardon a man unless he believed him innocent, and he had kept his promise.

The report of the Mayfield speech was signed by Mr. John D. Wakefield, then, as now, staff correspondent of the Courier-Journal, and now also secretary to the Hon. Swager Sherley, Democratic congressman-elect. The Harrodsburg report is signed by Mr. Graham Vreeland, night editor of the Courier-Journal, whose Democracy will not be questioned. Mr. Wakefield says there were 7,000 persons who heard the speech at Mayfield. Mr. Vreeland says about 5,000 persons heard the Harrodsburg speech. So, that there were 12,000 witnesses to what the governor said at both places.

The question is, what did these thousands understand Governor Beckham to mean at either or both places? Did those at Maysfield understand him to mean that he pledged himself to pardon no man convicted of any crime whatever by a fair jury of twelve men? Colonel Belknap was far within the limits of its plain meaning when he applied it only to the gravest of all crimes—murder.

Now, when the exigencies of his desperate position call for the denial of that solemn promise wantonly and scores of time violated, Mr. Beckham says he promised not to pardon any man unless he thought him "innocent."

If this is the way he is to writhes and wriggle out of plain and solemn promises, is he to be trusted about any? Can all the little men of Lilliput bind this young man with threads enough to hold him to the truth?

What are Governor Beckham's mental reservations about Jett and White? In his Winchester speech he made this pledge:

"I feel that I am fully acquainted with the facts, and I believe, as did that jury, that they (Jett and White) are guilty of the assassination of Marcum, and I can say to the people that I will never pardon them of that crime, even though Marcum was a Republican leader."

Is that pledge any plainer than the Mayfield pledge? Now that he tries to squirm and wriggle out of his Mayfield promise, let him state plainly what this Winchester pledge means.

A CORRECTION IN HOGGOLY.

To the Editor of the Herald:
I note in the Herald of August 26 the following headliner:

Campaign Secretary Fulton Gets His Hand in the Trough.
Now, my long experience as an agriculturalist warrants me in calling your attention to this fact, that it is the nature of a hog to put his head, not his "hands," in the trough; although there have been well authenticated instances of a very earnest hog getting all four of his "hands" in the trough. Please do not again shock the hoggology of your farmer friends.

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. Fall and.... Winter Millinery!

Every effort has been made to make this the most perfect showing, the most satisfactory display ever seen in Maysville. Every fashion center finds representation in this big stock. It is by far the most beautiful aggregation of the new styles in Millinery we have ever shown in the thirty-five years history of this store.

Now, while the stock is at its best, it will be well for you to come and make your selection. There are many new creations, every one in good taste, correct style, becoming and thoroughly up-to-date.
